

Title of the Case Study

Title	Example
Type of Case Study [20 words]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Migratory waterspecies group, e.g. Anatidae, crane, shorebirds, etc.</li> <li>• Management of habitat used by waterbird(s), e.g. wetland site, etc.</li> <li>• Community engagement, working with the private sector, benefits of joining the EAAF-Partnership, designating network sites etc.</li> </ul>
Introduction to the Case Study [75 words]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Issue facing the migratory waterbird species/or group;</li> <li>• Issue facing the habitat, e.g. wetland, working with local communities;</li> </ul>
What was done and when did you do it? [150 words]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Monitoring or conservation action taken on the migratory waterbird species or group(s);</li> <li>• Conservation management taken on the habitat, e.g. restoration etc</li> <li>• Activities involving the local community, e.g. concerning raising livelihood, CEPA etc,</li> </ul>
If relevant, identify your main target group for your activity [20 words]
What was the result of the action? [150 words]
What was your biggest challenge in achieving success? [30 words]
If the result was not completely successful, what went wrong? What will you do to resolve the problem? [100 words]
If relevant, identify your key sponsors/partners for your activity [20 words]
How is the Case Study useful for other Partners? [20 words]
Useful links
Name and contact details of the author(s) of the case study
Date case study was submitted

Additional information

- Please provide 2-3 photographs illustrating the Case Study, identifying clearly each photographer so that they can be acknowledged

DRAFT